

1982

Scarborough Women's Centre is founded.

1987

We established Women of Many Cultures Planning Group – to work with community partners on newcomer women's issues.

1988

The English conversation volunteer tutoring program is founded.

1989

The Women in transition volunteer mentoring program is launched.

1989-1991

The first major project of the Scarborough Women's Centre is completed, a safety audit of the Toronto Transit Commission resulting in the Request Stop program.

1994

A one-on-one mentorship program is launched promoting women supporting each other.

1997

We launched Rebuilding Our Lives: Economic self sufficiency project to promote economic and emotional independence for woman at risk of returning to abuse.

1999

We helped launch the Women's Place Interagency Storefront at Morningside Mall.

2000

We established our free counselling program.

2004

We launched a mothers and children at-risk project for women parenting children with disabilities, at risk of returning to abusive situations.

2007

We formed a partnership with MCIS to provide interpretation services for newcomer women using our counselling service.

2009

We launched Expanding the Reach, a program for women with disabilities.

2010

We launched of Building Strong Futures, a young women's outreach program focused on the capacity building of women and girls aged 13-19 years old.

2012

We launched Build.Act.Change: Engaging young people to prevent violence against women" in partnership with University of Toronto at Scarborough.

2017

As part of Expanding the Reach, we launched a project supporting the economic empowerment for women with disabilities.

NOW...

You can join us as we embark on our next steps!