COVID-19 Update

Building Strong Futures: Young Women’s Outreach program will continue to host online workshops for young women throughout the month of September. We do hope that in the near future we will be able to offer some in-person services!

Why attend?
Not only are these webinars a great way to learn new things and empower yourself, they are also a space where we as young women can come together virtually to create and experience a sense of community.

How can I sign up?
You can sign up by visiting http://www.scarboroughwomenscentre.ca/young-women/ and filling out the registration form that can be found at the bottom of the page. The link to join the meeting as well as call in instructions will be sent to you at the email you provide the day before the webinar is scheduled to take place. If you don’t have a reliable internet connection, you have the option to call in from your mobile device and listen on your phone.

Questions?
Please email our Project Coordinator Nadya Lim-Douglas at specialproject@scarboroughwomenscentre.ca or call 416-439-7111 ext. 104

All young women 14–21 are invited to participate in our workshops.

THANK YOU TO OUR FUNDERS!
October

Monday October 4th 4:30-6 p.m.

The Real Deal on Intersectionality w/ Nadya Lim-Douglas
You may have heard the term "intersectionality" thrown around in a lot of spaces, but do you know where it came from? Do you know who coined the term? This workshop intends to explain intersectionality by exploring its roots.

Monday October 18th 4:30-6 p.m.

Consent Matters – Consent in Law and the Workplace w/ SHARE
Consent is both mandatory and complicated. Consent law in Canada evolved throughout the decades but where does the law stand right now? What strategies can you use to practice consent and assert boundaries in the workplace? Join us for this interactive webinar facilitated by SHARE to learn about: Consent law in Canada, the legal definition of workplace sexual harassment, pragmatic strategies to assert boundaries at work, and strategies to practice consent.

Monday October 25th 4:30-6 p.m.

Healthy Relationships & Safety w/ GBV Strides
Join the GBV team from Strides Toronto to learn about consent, healthy relationships and the "who, what, when, where, why's" of human trafficking. This will be an interactive session and questions are more than welcome.
November
